

I oppose the attempt of the CBA or any other commercial group to weaken Indiana's no-call legislation. The anonymous and intrusive nature of telephone calls to my home is an inappropriate way of selling or informing me of services.